ANOTHER "MYSTERY"
MAKES SOME WORK

Did Chimney of British Embassy Harbor Outfit of Spy?
It Did Not.

Another "mystery" of international politics was uncovered in Washington today by an American newspaper man.
Fired by memories of the romance and intrigue in Washington during the Russo-Japanese war and by a knowledge of the "secret service" now going on in connection with the devotion of Mexican politics, but studied by the dignity of that solemn, imposing, red-brick pile, the British embassy, at the corner of Connecticut avenue and N street northwest, a reporter for The Star linked arms with luck this morning and inquired at the embassy.

"What happened when you had your chimney fixed?"
Said chimney is in the chancellery, between that building and the residence next door, the latter occupied during the last month and a half by Dr. W. W. Christmas, the aeroplane inventor and builder. The chimney wouldn't draw, and therefore, there was not enough fire to warm the chilled secretaries and attaches, who labor in the chancellery evening after evening until midnight, as all know some Washington knows by the lights that burn there until that hour or later.

Expected to Fire Bombshell.
The reporter expected his question to be a bombshell. He expected there would come rushing forth, in heated accents, the story that is being told all over town, to the effect that a secret opening was made in the chimney, while the house next door was vacant, and that the damaging evidence of dictaphone wires leading down into the British offices had been uncovered.

Hundreds of Washingtonians who have whispered to one another the past few days the story of how a bricklayer was employed to block an opening in the chimney, and how a set of dicta-phone wires was found there, are doomed to read an unraveling of this "mystery" in the columns of the Star.
It is amusing rather than important. Here it is as it comes from one of the embassy attaches.

"What happened when we had our chimney fixed? Why, the fire burned all right. What did we find? Why, we found an awful lot of dust and soot.
Charles is going to get a scolding for letting that chimney get so dirty. The war certainly does make lots of work, of one kind or another, for the embassies, and some degree of good-natured patience is required among the staffs to set straight the reports that are constantly coming up of spies, but as they say at the British embassy, 'it's all in the day's work.'" Whereupon the unraveling of "mystery" in international politics resumed the hunt for a real "story," cheering himself by the light refrain: "Dictaphone easily Could Be a Diplomat's Delight."

W. C. DILLON IS APPOINTED 8-HOUR LAW INSPECTOR

Prosecutions for Violations of the Statute Are to Be Pushed Henceforth.

The District Commissioners today announced the appointment of Walter C.
Dillon as a member of the board of eight-hour law inspectors, to succeed Paul W. Garrett, resigned. The position pays $1,200 a year.

Recommendations for prosecution of alleged violations of the eight-hour law have been made by the board, it is understood, though no action has yet been taken by the corporation commissioner.

Prior to the recent decision of the District Supreme Court upholding the validity of the law the board had contented itself with educating employers in the requirements of the act.
Now that its constitutionality has been established, it is the intention of the authorities to prosecute all violations of the law that may be discovered.

The members of the board of inspectors, in addition to the new appointee, are Mrs. M. P. Tagg and Miss M. L.
Simpson. The inspectors are immediately under the supervision of Charles K. Holman, the health department chief, exercises general supervision over their work.

SNOW AND COLD GRIP
STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—Unusually cold weather for this season of the year prevails throughout Pennsylvania.
Last night there was a light snow in some sections, and in the mountain regions the thermometer registered as low as 6 degrees above zero.

In Philadelphia the lowest was 20 degrees and the weather bureau reports that the cold snap will continue for several days.

MUST TAKE PRISONERS
TO JAIL HEREAFTER

Custom of Deputy Marshals Using Police Stations Prohibited in Future.

Prisoners taken into custody by deputy marshals late at night, and accused persons brought from other jurisdictions to be surrendered to the marshal, will hereafter have to be lodged in jail, it is stated. The custom of the marshal has been to take such persons to a police precinct station and leave them overnight, so that they might be taken to court before being committed to jail.

Sequel to Verdict Rendered.
Recently Acting Superintendent of Police Boardman notified the captains of the precincts to decline to accommodate the marshal or his deputies by housing prisoners over night. The action of the police official grew out of a verdict rendered against Capt. Peck of the first precinct a few weeks ago for alleged unlawful imprisonment because he held a prisoner for three hours at the second precinct when he was in charge of that station.

The plaintiff in that case, it is pointed out, was not taken by a deputy marshal to Capt. Peck with a request to detain him for convenience of the marshal.

Testimony at Trial.
The testimony at the trial showed that Capt. Peck "horrified" the prisoner from the marshal for the purpose, according to the testimony of the captain, of learning what the prisoner knew about the charge made against him.

The prisoner and his counsel charged that it was for the purpose of working the "third degree" on the accused.
It was at the request of the police captain, the evidence showed, that the marshal sent the prisoner to the police station. The ruling of the court, it is said, did not refer to a prisoner held at the request of the marshal.

SOCIALISTS LOOK TO FUTURE.
Expect Reward for Their Support of German War Policy.

LONDON, March 30.—As a result of German socialists' staunch support of the government in the war, party leaders confidently expect the future will bring socialists rights and privileges equal to those granted all other parties.
A resolution expressing this belief was adopted by the socialist party diet in Hesse, according to a Darmstadt dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company by way of Amsterdam.

The resolution added that while safeguarding all party interests, the socialist deputies will vote for the adoption of the budget to show the world that Germany is united in the fight to gain a victory and "lasting peace."

JOHN H. O'BRIEN VICTIM OF APOPLECTIC ATTACK
Private Secretary to Senator Penrose Dies After Very Brief Period of Illness.

John H. O'Brien, for twelve years secretary to Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, died of apoplexy in his apartment in the Ventosa apartment house last night.

Funeral services for Mr. O'Brien were held at Wright's chapel this afternoon.
The interment will be made in Philadelphia. The funeral services were held in charge of Federal Lodge, No. 1, F. A. M., of which Mr. O'Brien was a member.

Mr. O'Brien walked from the Capitol office to the Ventosa apartment house last night. He was in good health and made no complaint of illness. When he arrived at his apartment he greeted his wife and seven-year-old daughter as usual. Soon thereafter Mr. O'Brien became faint. Mrs. O'Brien sent for a physician, who ordered Mr. O'Brien to bed. Five minutes later he was dead.

Native of Pittsburgh.
Mr. O'Brien was thirty-eight years old. He was born in Pittsburgh. He was employed by the Westinghouse company there, when, in 1905, he accepted a position with Senator Penrose.
He is survived by his wife and daughter.

In addition to his connection with Federal Lodge, No. 1, F. A. M., Mr.
O'Brien was a member of Columbia chapter, No. 1, R. A. M., of Washington Commandery, K. T., and Almas Temple of the Mystic Shrine.

Senator Penrose was notified by telegraph of the death of Mr. O'Brien.

town Hospital, yesterday underwent a successful operation. Col. Magoon is said to have stood the operation admirably and is now well on the road to recovery. He has been active in local G. A.
R. affairs. He was a member of the 1st Minnesota which made a famous charge in the battle of Gettysburg.

RUSE SEPARATES ELOPERS.
Grace Bowles Consents to Come Home Before Her "Romance"

NEW YORK, March 30.—The elopement romance of Alston Curtin, sixteen years old, and Grace Bowles, fifteen, who ran away two weeks ago from their homes in Washington to be married in New York, came to its official end in the children's court, this city, yesterday afternoon.

Quite a crowd had gathered when the case of young Curtin and little Miss Bowles was called. When the defendants did not appear, an officer of the children's society explained that Tuesday Grace Bowles' parents, who live at 86 V street, Washington, sent their daughter's railroad fare, but the little girl eloper would not go home, and could not be persuaded to desert her young Romeo.

"I should stay here as long as Alston does," she told the friendly matron of the Children's Society.
But he went yesterday," she was told, more effectively than truthfully.
Then she went gladly to the station and was put on the train in care of the conductor, by an officer of the society, and looked for her home in Washington.

Young Curtin had not gone, however, and it was not until Friday night that his stepfather, Edward Coughlin, who lives at 162 Bryant street, in Washington, sent the money to the society to pay the lad's railroad ticket home. He went home gladly when that Grace, his sweetheart, had preceded him two days before.

D. C. CANNOT HAVE AUTO.

Controller Downey Rules Against Occoquan Requisition.
Conceding the argument of the auditor for the District of Columbia that the District of Columbia, as a municipal corporation, is an entity, separate and distinct from the federal government, the controller of the Treasury, George E. Downey, rules that, nevertheless, the inhibition against purchase of an automobile from federal appropriations applies to the appropriations for the District of Columbia. He rules that an automobile for the use of the workhouse at Occoquan cannot be acquired by purchase.

The statutory inhibition, Controller Downey observes, attaches to any appropriation of Congress, including the appropriation for the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia, while a separate entity, he considers, is a "branch of the government service within the language of the inhibition legislation."

STRIKE VOTE UNANIMOUS.
Western Union Telegraphers in St.
Louis Allege Unjust Discrimination.

ST. LOUIS, March 30.—One hundred and twenty-five telegraphers, present and former employees of the local branch of the Western Union Telegraph Company, have unanimously voted to strike, according to Sylvester J. Konekman, international president of the "Commercial Telegraphers' Union.

While the vote was being taken, W.
C. Long, secretary of the local union, received a telegram from Secretary Wilson of the Department of Labor saying that William Blackman, commissioner of conciliation of the Department of Labor, was on the way to St. Louis to act as mediator. The request for mediation was made to Secretary Wilson by the union.

The strike vote was taken on the demand of about forty operators recently discharged by the Western Union Company. The operators claim they were discharged because their membership in the union had become known. Officers of the telegraph company deny that union men are being discriminated against.

French Seek Trade of Germans.

operation of the principal commercial hitherto held in international trade by the celebrated Leipzig exposition in Germany. This is designed as a step in the direction of obtaining for France and her allies trade which hitherto has gone to Germany.

Death Increase Laid to Grip.
NEW YORK, March 30.—Prevalence of grip has caused a large increase in the deaths in pulmonary cases in this city, according to figures made public today by the department of health. In the week just ended 380 persons died of pneumonia, according to the official report, as compared with 305 in the corresponding week last year. This increase was attributed to the grip. In the same period the number of deaths from influenza increased from eighteen to twenty-eight.
